

Delock Cable Winder (Cableyo) with Magnetic Ring Set 2 pieces

Description

These cable winders by Delock can be used to wind up exposed cables e.g. headphone cables or charging cables to protect them from dirt or damage.

Simple application due to compact design

The headphone cable can be easily wound onto the silicone coil and the headphones themselves remain firmly and securely attached to the magnetic ring.

Ideal for travel, at home or in the office

The cable winders are perfect for storing headphones and charger cables, as they are safely stowed away and cannot become knotted or tangled.
