

Delock Barcode Scanner stand with holder flexible black

Description

This barcode scanner holder by Delock is the ideal complement for the Delock scanners 90557 and 90562, as well as for scanners with the same dimensions.

Flexible adjustable

Thanks to the flexible gooseneck, the holder can be adjusted individually and is ideal for placing the scanner.

Secure hold

With the help of the two holes in the base, the stand can be attached to the desk and provides a secure hold while placing it down.
